To Whom It May Concern:

The American Academy for Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine (AACPDm) is a global leader in the multidisciplinary scientific education of health professionals and researchers dedicated to the well-being of people with childhood-onset disabilities. The mission of the AACPDm is to provide multidisciplinary scientific education for health professionals and promote excellence in research and services for the benefit of people with cerebral palsy and childhood-onset disabilities.

The AACPDm Student/Trainee Scholarship Program supports the mission of the AACPDm by providing financial assistance for trainees to attend the AACPDm Annual Meeting. Applicants are awarded funds up to $1000 for travel assistance, as well as complimentary general meeting registration and instructional courses.

Please accept this letter as confirmation that Dr. Qiyu Peng was awarded a Student/Trainee scholarship of $1000 to attend the 2004 AACPDm Annual Meeting.

Sincerely,

Jesse Cunningham
AACPDm Membership Assistant
