Dear Mr. Peng,

Congratulations on being selected as finalist in the Vodafone Wireless Innovation Project! Your project with Dr. Budinger, Tongue Touch, the intra-oral wireless communication system, has been selected as one of the eight finalists. You will have the opportunity to appear in person for the judging on March 18, 2010 before a balanced panel of judges from Vodafone business, foundation, NGO (non-governmental organization) and academia.

As you know, Vodafone Americas Foundation operates an annual competition to seek the best wireless innovation that can make a social impact. Winners will receive monetary awards ranging from $300,000 to $100,000 over 3 years, in addition there will be a special mHealth Award provided by the mHealth Alliance for the best health solution. Your project has been selected one of the eight from a pool of hundreds of applicants. If you would like to accept this opportunity, please follow the directions below and prepare to appear at your scheduled time on March 18th.

Attached you will find the following items:

1. Judging criterion
2. Draft presentation schedule
3. Your logistics page
